

Year 7 culinary skills

Year 7 have worked hard practising their culinary skills learning how to chop vegetables, grate, peel and cook them. They have learnt to weigh and measure accurately, to use the cooker safely and recently have been taught about the versatility of eggs. Mrs Yon

Last week, we made a dish called Baked Eggs with Tomatoes & Sausages. Here we are showing the processes involved:

Well-done Year 7!

Year 7 – Drama in English Whilst studying ‘Two Weeks with the Queen’, a play by Morris Gleitzmann, Year 7 decided to act out a scene on an aeroplane. The experience allows the children to address all the other ‘jobs’ that are not acting, so they created outfits, made props, made decisions about staging and character and produced their own scene. They decided to share the experience in the school newsletter. Ms Halden

Improvisation: I improvised throughout the whole sketch since my character was made up, so there was no set script or acting. Improvising was hard at first but I got the hang of it and improvised throughout the sketch. I am enjoying how it is going and can't wait to do more. Jordan

We made the classroom look like a plane by putting the seats into rows and we made a cubby hole for me as the Flight Attendant. Zayla

What I love about being the businessman is when the naughty children on the plane do something weird, I can make a disgusted face and be posh about everything. Doing this is easy for me because I do Drama club on Tuesday afternoons. Wyatt

We used interesting props like a toy card to show how old I was, so I can run it up and down the aircraft. We also had a briefcase that Wyatt ( businessman) had, to show what kind of person he was playing. We also chose headphones so Troy ( captain) could talk to the crew. At the end Rhiann (Rebecca) opened the luggage hold and it all fell on top of us. Lucas

We had to dress to look the part for our drama sketch. We drew up an outfit on an outline of a boy/girl to show what we were going to wear. I wore a blue flower top, black leggings and black shoes. Rhiann

Colin is the main part and is being sent from Australia to Britain because his brother is very ill. He is confident, not scared to talk to other people, very scientific, jealous and very fond of his brother Luke. He dresses smartly, and is full of energy. Jaylen

Being Captain has responsibilities and that means I have to trust the autopilot. A pilot must be taken seriously. I am a nice captain but I am a shy kind of person. I show Colin the cockpit. Over the years I have to live with responsibility because there are hundreds of people to keep safe. Troy
